

Frequently asked questions

What is an investment and what does it include?

Investments are all kinds of the property (except private goods), including leasing items, from the moment of leasing contract conclusion, as well as the rights to them, invested by investor in registered capital of legal body or accumulation of financial assets, used in entrepreneurial activity.